

the Cloverleaf

Volume XI, No. 1

Luck High School

October 3, 1975

Queen Candidates

On Oct. 3, three senior beauties will vie for the title of Homecoming queen, 1975. They are Renee Jorgenson, Tammy Joy, and Lisa Tolan.

When asked what she looked forward to most, Renee replied it was between two things, the dance and riding on the float. She said she will really miss marching in the parade? - especially if it's raining!

Lisa says the most exciting thing for her will be to see Luck play a good ballgame. Win or lose it doesn't matter if they play their best!

Winning the game and having a good time are the things Tammy is looking forward to.

When asked what qualities they felt would make a good queen, the three candidates came up with these comments: a cheery personality, being able to laugh at herself, being able to get along with other people, and going to the games.

The real highlight of this interview was when each of the candidates was asked a different question. We think all three came up with pretty good answers, but judge for yourself.

Q. What would you do if your date was a football player and broke his leg during the game?

Renee: I would go with him to the hospital and comfort him the best I could.

Q. What would you do if your zipper broke during the dance?

Tammy: Act nonchalant until I could get to the bathroom to pin it.

Q. What would you do if your little brother told your date an intimate secret about you just before the dance?

Lisa: Laugh and go on as if nothing had happened.

Well, what do you think? It's going to be a tough

"Wildfire" - Homecoming 1975

King Bevin

This year the football players have chosen Bevin Sandstrom to be homecoming king and ride on the float with our queen.

Star football player Bevin has been playing football since he was in grade school at Oak Hill. It was here that he first realized he had the talent to become a great football player. Bevin entered the punt, pass and kick contest, but he didn't win anything because he sprained his kicking ankle on the night before the contest.

Bevin is predicting a Cardinal victory, with a score of Luck 22, Amery 13. Of course, after the game he will be attending the dance. Bevin describes his idea of a perfect homecoming date as "a sweet, wholesome, well-bred, young, pretty girl."

KING BEVIN - QUEEN TAMMY

ATTENDANTS - Liz Memmer, Deb Melin, Carol Orvold.

Schedule of Events for Homecoming

choice to make. No one will know who will reign over the Homecoming festivities this year until October 3 at the Pep fest.	Bonfire Thursday 8:15 Pepfest Friday 1:15 Parade Friday 2:45 Game Friday 8:00 Dance, After game until 12:30
--	---

Our Queen Candidates

Have You Met...

This year at Luck High School, there are six new students.

There are three girls: Lynette and Jeanne Anderson from Ayer, Mass., and Debbie Grambow from Unity. There are also three boys, Russel Baedke from Turtle Lake, Sanders Thompson from Richfield, Minn., and Mike Seager from Osceola.

Here are a few of their ideas that we got from interviewing them.

What do you think of Luck High School? They liked the shorter classes and the bigger and better lunches.

How does this school compare to your old school? It's a lot smaller and stricter.

What did you do for excitement at your old school? Their interests ranged from sports to movies and bowling to talking in groups and parties.

What do you think of the students at Luck? The majority of newcomers thought the students were friendly and "cool."

Some of the new students plan to get out for extra curricular activities.

We're sure that these new students will be a great addition to our school.

FFA Trip

This year the FFA chapter went on its annual trip to the Minnesota State Fair. They went on Saturday, Aug. 30, which turned out to be a pretty nice day.

They left at 7:30, a little later than scheduled, and arrived at the State Fair at 9:00. The kids under 16 got in for 75 cents, 16 and over got in for $1.50.

There were 29 students who went, which was a pretty good turnout. They stayed all day and covered a lot of the fairground. The midway proved to be the most fun after a $3 dinner.

The barns and Machinery Hill ran close in second place. Third place was left to just bumming around.

The ride home is always a lot of fun, just ask Jack Holme about his stuffed Sitting - Mr. Messar, Miss Brom, Sander Thompson, Mike Seager, Lynette and Jeanne Anderson.

New Teachers

Maybe you've noticed two new faces on the teaching staff this year. They are Miss Brom and Mr. Messar.

Miss Brom comes from Milwaukee where she graduated from West Division. She is taking the place of Miss Walsh in algebra and phy ed for girls. (Miss Walsh will be getting married in October.)

Miss Brom said she has always wanted to be a physical education teacher because she wanted to see how the mental and physical aspects of the body work together through exercise.

When asked how she likes Luck, she said it was nice. She prefers to be called Miss Brom to "Broom."

Mr. Messar comes from Wausaukee, Wis., a small town north of Green Bay. He says he likes Luck because he's a small town person. He spent eight years in college studying biology, so that's why he's a biology teacher.

Mr. Messar is filling in for Mr. Olson who retired last year after 37 years of teaching. He will be teaching general science and biology. Ninth hour General Science class, how does Mr. Messar handle a rowdy class?

dog!! They left about 8:00 from the fairgrounds and arrived home shortly before 10:00. Over all it was a very worthwhile trip and should be even better next year.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

For years the students of Luck High School have tried hard to put together our annual. Each year when our Horseshoe comes out, all the hard work seems to go down the drain. For every staff member only hears, "Why not more sports?" or "We're the only school that doesn't have color pictures." and endless remarks about how bad the book is. I myself am not on the staff but I can sure say I'm proud of the good work they've done! If you want something special in the book why not suggest it. At least that's a lot better than complaining.

Name Withheld
by Request

No Text Books!!!

I can still see the joyful looks on the students' faces in Mr. Goulet's geography class the first day of school. The first thing he said to us was, "I don't know what we're going to study, how to grade you, and the worst thing is; we have NO textbooks."

It seems like the majority of the class didn't feel too hurt by the fact that we didn't get any textbooks. When Mr. Goulet divided us into three groups, one to make up the curriculum, one for the grading system, and one to look at a list of textbooks, everyone thought it would be easy. Some did find it easy while others considered it hard.

We all came up with an agreement on curriculum, a grading system, and a

School Play

"Meet Me In St. Louis"
Is the next school play.
And our Luck crew
Has practiced every day.

About a St. Louis family
With a father who doesn't care,
He wants to move to New York
Right before the World's Fair.

It would be impossible to move with the girls in love,
Esther has shaken hands
with Fred,
Rose with John;
Wouldn't THEY rather be dead.

It's Dad's new job that's the problem.
The girls soon see to that.
Rose takes care of it all,
By throwing out the cat.

The boss thinks that they're stuck up--
Rose won't shake hands and
Dad won't beg;
Esther drops a water
bomb,
And Tootie bites his leg.

The girls have terrorized him,
Dad has offered him what looks like rat-eaten candy,
The boss finally fires Dad
And the girls decide it's not so dandy.

I can't describe everything,
The rest of the play you'll have to see.
There's so much left unsaid...
Go to see who your friends will be!

The cast is ready,
The makeup on and
costumes set.
This is really a super-good play
Upon that you can bet!

textbook after the first week of class. Students are busy working on their booklets on any country they choose that is due the third week in September.

We've been discussing things about maps and space. We saw one film called "Search of the Ancient Astronaut," which set many minds wondering about outer space.

Know anyone with these kingly charms?

Birthdays

Freshmen, September

Sharon Morales	8
Jim Sandlin	18
Jerry Petersen	23
Barb Melin	25
Sandy Thompson	28

October

Todd Medchill	2
Mark Harvey	11
Sue Mattson	12
Pam Nelson	21
Kris Swerkstrom	24

Sophomores, September

Julie Peterson	6
Tom Erickson	6
Karrie Melin	12
Melody Dau	16
Robin Kreutzian	19

October

Jim Langle	29
------------	----

Juniors, September

Jackie Lundquist	5
Mark Johnson	11
Sherri Olson	23

October

Becky Jorgenson	1
Steve Paulsen	3
Barb Konopacki	7
Connie Porter	9
Virgil Hochstetler	16

Seniors, September

Jeanie Schilling	2
Doug Davidsavor	10
Brad Asper	13
Russ Baedke	19
Terry Darwin	19
Vickie Chartrand	20
Theresa Ackerley	27

October

Bevin Sandstrom	19
Jim Mattson	29

Luck Band Marches On And On And On

The Luck band members have really been "keeping on their toes" in the past month, practicing (and more practicing), marching in the home football games, and most important, in several parades.

On September 7 the band members traveled to Osceola to march in the Osceola Fun Fair Days. Considering it was the first parade of the year, we did quite well. Gary Skow and "Head" even got the thrill of having their picture taken with "Roundhouse Rodney" from the "Lunch with Casey" T.V. program.

The following weekend was a busy one with the band having to march twice in two days. First we had the mile long Amery Fall Festival Parade on Saturday and second the Milltown Fishermen's Party Parade on Sunday. With the previous week's experience we did well. A few of the minor problems were keeping warm at the start of the parades and cooling off at the end, trying to play when you didn't have all your music memorized, and a few people out of step. But all in all we did a pretty good job and expect to have a really good year considering the size, experience, and ability(?) of this year's band.

Did You Know:

That this year's annual is eight pages longer than last year's?

There isn't a B-squad football team? (wonder why??)

That 93 percent of L.H.S. girls won't be asked to Homecoming?

The senior boys are in LOVE with Miss Brom?

The sophomore girls are in LOVE with Mr. Messar?

The girl's golf team wants uniforms?

The girls' volleyball team wants pep fests!?

The V.B.T. runs to Simon and Garfunkel?

The school isn't heated on Mondays?

Locker Room Chatter Girls Dept.

Our first girls golf meet was a complete success if you like to: get soaking wet, fake a lightning rod, and push mini buses down double G!

Linda H., is it fun changing clothes by flashlight during power shortages?

Ms. Brom, you chew a lot of gum out there! Not Trident by any chance?

Why is it sandstorms seem to hit the golf course

A New Game In Town

Women's lib has finally come to Luck. For the first year we have girls' golf.

There are ten people who went out for it. Kandi Anderson, is the only senior with Lori Steen, Darla Bille, and Laura Chaffee, juniors; Linda Redman, Karen Chaffee, Robin Kreutzian, and Lorraine Rebrovich, sophomores; and Jean Walker and Jean Cogswell support the freshman class.

The first match was at Rice Lake, but it was rained out and was rescheduled for Sept. 22. On Tuesday, Sept. 16, Rice Lake and Chetek came to Luck and Luck won both A and B squads games.

Oct. 2 Luck and Eau Claire Memorial traveled to Chetek. Regionals are Oct. 7 and Sectionals Oct. 10, with the state meet at Fond du Lac Oct. 17-18.

every time the girls are out practicing?

Boys Dept.

Get them flies out of here!

Lucy, what are you doing in here?

Get the heck out of here! This the whole team???

How come your shirt is inside out?

Where is my football??????

Tom, go get the towels...

Girls Volleyball

The varsity volleyball team got off to a good start Thursday night, defeating Grantsburg 15 to 5.

On the varsity team are Jane Everson, Jeanne Lake, Barb Melin, Deb Melin, Dannette Morten, Kelly Olson, Jill Sandstrom, Alison Schmidt, and Co-Captains, Carol Nygren and Debbie Randall.

The junior Varsity had a little trouble, with Grantsburg taking over 15 to 8 and 15 to 3. On the junior Varsity team are Kathy Berg, Karen Jensen, Lori Jerrick, Karrie Melin, Liz Memmer, Kris Swerkstrom, Cathy Tolan, with Co-captains Barb Konopacki and Connie Porter. Renee Morten is manager.

Coach Brom states "looking at the girls as a team, I'd say we have a pretty good chance of winning against any of the teams. We still have a few wrinkles to iron out, but we all do at some time or another!"

Words of Wisdom for the Volleyball Team!

What Would You Do With a Pleach?

Robin K.-Drink it
 Gwen B.-Can it!
 Brenda K.-Smoke it.
 Lee C.-Eat it.
 Darla B.-Throw it at cars.
 Ted F.-Not much
 Brenda M.-Wear it.
 Ronnie P.-Get high off it.
 Sue H.-Put it in your shirt.
 Lonna H.-Put it in your hair.
 Linda R.-Kiss it.
 Bevin S.-Put it in your pants.
 Jim E.-Throw it away.
 Sue C.-Send it back to Africa!
 Janny P.-Use it once and throw it away.
 Lonnie L.-Use it for athlete's foot.
 Alan G.-Quite a bit!!
 Laura C.-Mix It.
 Karrie M.-Put it under your pillow.
 Kandi A.-Use it to get out of a sandtrap.
 Editor's Note: Even our reporter was confused! "Pleach" means "to interlace or entwine," making it a verb. Our reporter used it as a noun!!

Play Practice

"Where are you?"
 Is one of the many things you might hear Miss Berg say at an average play practice. That's not all that happens though. There are some people who make their grand entrances by diving over drums and not making it. Then there are others who don't show up at all.

For the next month everyone will be home or at school studying their lines for one of the funniest plays ever presented. The play, "Meet Me in St. Louis," will be given Thursday, Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 2 at 2:00.

Is Everybody Ready?

Coach Goulet giving suggestions at football practice.

Homecoming

Attendants Picked

This year's attendants are Carol Orvold-junior, Deb Melin-sophomore, and Liz Memmer-freshman. These girls answered more difficult questions than those in the past. If you were an attendant, what would you say?

When asked what they were looking forward to most about Homecoming, Carol replied the dance, Liz said dressing up, and Deb said the victory over Amery and the dance.

What's your idea of the perfect date for the dance? Carol - He'd be tall, blonde, and drive a Roadrunner. Deb replied, "The guy of my dreams is an all-American, dark, broad-shouldered, muscular Boy!!!" Liz - He'd be tall, dark, and handsome.

What would you do if your date cut out on you at the last minute before the dance? Carol said she wouldn't talk to him for a week and go to the dance and find someone else. Liz would go anyway and try to find someone else. Deb said "I'd go to the dance and look for a romance."

Do you think attendants should get more than they have in the past? All of them replied yes and gave us some of the following suggestions. They should receive shiny crowns, bouquets, dedicate one dance to us, and have MALE attendants for the female attendants.

Literary Corner

Heard In Passing

The other day, I was rather bored in my study hall so I signed out to the bathroom and went merrily out with my "pottie paddle." While on my little "roaming spree," I passed an English class. Because I heard laughter coming from within, I decided to stop and listen.

"How come we have to do this?"

"GAAWK!"

"What's that?!"

"A big bird, why?"

"Sick! Will you shut up?"

"How can I get this done?"

"I did it! This is really good! I'm an honest-to-gosh poet!"

"I hate braggers."

"Class will you get to work?"

"Anybody thought of anything to write yet?"

"I quit! My mind's a blank."

"Hey, who's that standing outside the door?"

Hearing this, I decided to move on. Next I went by the typing room, where typewriters were clicking and bells dingling.

"Hey, there's something wrong with my machine. It don't work!"

"Dummy, it's not plugged in!"

"My fingers won't work right."

"Oh, shoot!"

"ASDF space JKL; I did it!"

"These stupid keys keep sticking."

"You push too many keys at one time!"

"Someone get me some more paper."

On to bigger and better things, huh? Next a home ec. class, and they're cooking!

"Next we need two eggs."

"Are you sure you copied this right? It says twenty cups of flour!"

"Oops, guess who spilled some sugar."

"I get to lick the bowl!"

"Let's put in rum extract instead of vanilla!"

"You guys are going to kill me. I just lost an eggshell in this dough."

"What's burning?"

It's your turn to do dishes."

"It's not, I did them last time!"

"O.K., dig in!"

"O W! My finger is scorched."

"I'm dying."

"Yuk! There's something wrong with these!"

Enough of that! I guess it was time to head back. On my way downstairs I passed the library. All I heard was "Shh!"

Oh, oh.

"Where are you supposed to be this hour?"

I said, "I'm going back to study hall," and flashed my "pottie-paddle."

Whew! Saved!

On my way back downstairs, I heard from the biology lab (Oh boy!) excitement!

"Hey, one got away! Grab him!"

"Ick, he's all slimy!"

"Oh, don't kill him!"

"I think I'm going to be sick."

"You just plop him in the pan and pin him down."

"If there's one thing I hate, it's frogs!"

"Yuk!! This is really gorey!"

"Look, the heart's still going."

"Clear the way! She's going to puke!"

Clear the way? Good Idea! As one rather pale girl charged up the stairs with her hand over her mouth, I headed towards the chemistry lab.

"You can pour this acid; I'm not going to get acid all over my hands!"

"Now we need some H₂O."

"What's that?"

"I dunno, go see if there's a bottle of it somewhere."

"Here, hide that broken test tube under here."

"Look out!! I think it's going to BLOW!!!"

Time to move on. Hey, the band's warming up. Could be worth a stop.

"I can't play this. It's too hard."

Bodies In Our Cellar

Have you tried any elderberry wine lately? After watching the Guthrie performance of "Arsenic and Old Lace," elderberry wine wouldn't be a wise thing to drink.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was about two loveable sisters, Abby and Martha Brewster, who put an end to the loneliness of twelve old gentlemen.

Their nephew, Teddy thought he was Pres. Roosevelt and rushed around blowing his bugle and digging graves in the cellar, thinking they were locks for the Panama Canal.

Mortimer, the only sane member of the family, tried to cover up his aunts' murders, while his fiancée, Elaine Harper, ran around totally confused.

A long lost brother, Jonathon, appeared with Dr. Einstein and tried to get rid of Mortimer. Jonathon reminded everyone of Boris Karloff.

In the end, Abby, Martha, and Teddy were committed to Happydale. Jonathon was taken by the authorities, and Mortimer and Elaine were together at last.

After the performance there was a stop for supper at McDonalds.

Of The Month

Song: "Someone Saved My Life"

Clothes: Big shirts (smocks)

Food: NOT the schools'!!

Couple: Linda Berg and Brian Tomlinson

Teachers: Miss Brom and Mr. Messar

Event: Homecoming!!!

Class: Girls Phy Ed

Pasttime: Parties

Sport: Football

Movie: "Jaws"

Hangout: Park

Dude: Doug

Coach: Goulet!

"All right! Who stole my music?!"

"These stupid drums are so heavy, my shoulder is going to fall off!"

"I think my horn's wrecked. It won't play."

"Listen to this. A high C sharp!"

"How am I going to

The Day The Sky Fell

None of us will ever forget the day the sky fell. It happened on Sept. 8, approximately at 11:13, just in time for 5th hour. The lightning was getting pretty close, and then all the lights went out. Some screamed and others yelled out "Hey, I like this," and "What were you doing when the lights went out."

The best part was going down to lunch single file behind our teacher and eating by candlelight. The "lucky" ones ate their spaghetti with spoons and knives. Was that ever funny to watch.

The power came back on in a little while, and we thought the excitement was over. Then during 7th hour, the power went off again and when it came back on, all the fire alarms by the "Freshman" lockers went off. Ah, ha! It was a day not to be forgotten.

There's something one should always remember - never get caught in the bathroom when the lights go out!

What Does Homecoming Mean To You?

Alan T. - Not having to go home at 10:00.

Danette M. - A lot of excitement. Except marching.

Paul M. - Getting home on time to make the curfew.

Mr. Goulet - Trying to win the game!!

Darryl P. - The cupcakes.

Karrie M. - Dressing up like wierdos all week long.

Bevin S. - Five for the record!!

Wendy N. - A lot of fun.

march in six-inch platforms?"

"You think it's hot now, wait til you get into a penguin suit!"

When they headed outside to play and march, I decided I'd better get back to study hall. As I walked in there was someone signing out to the lockers, with a half-grin on his face. I believe I've found a fellow "roamer"!

Turtle Lake and Grantsburg Games

With our comparatively small team this year, we started the season on Sept. 5 with a loss to Turtle Lake. The game started when the Lakers ran Harvey Fjorden's kickoff back to their 40 yard line.

On their first possession of the ball the Lakers marched 60 yards early in the first quarter for the first touchdown of the game. The try for the extra point was no good.

Before we knew what happened, Turtle Lake had the ball again, after an on-sides kick. Although they had the pigskin at our end of the field, they didn't score.

The rest of the half was a defensive battle, until the Lakers finally crossed the goal line near the end of the second quarter. The first half gun went off with the score Turtle Lake 12, Luck 0.

The third quarter began with Luck receiving the kick. After both teams exchanged the football, we finally started a drive which ended with Joel Morgan catching a Brian Tomlinson pass for six points.

The Lakers made the last touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter. The game ended with Turtle Lake on top 18 to 6.

The following week,

Sept. 12, the Cards traveled to Grantsburg to suffer a very disappointing loss. Nothing went right for the team that night.

During the first half Luck had the ball four times to their six. Although we had the football deep in our end one time, the team couldn't penetrate the Pirate defense.

While our offense was having its own troubles, Grantsburg's was easily rolling down the field past our defense. In the six times they had the ball, the Pirates scored four times. The first half ended with the Pirates 27 and Cardinals 0.

The second half wasn't any better for Luck. Grantsburg rolled up and down the gridiron seven more times before the game ended. Three of their touchdowns were because of our mistakes.

The Cards, however, finally scored in the third quarter when Brad Asper made a fine run after catching a Joel Morgan pass.

Both teams made their share of mistakes, but Luck's were the most costly. As the final gun sounded, the score board showed Grantsburg 75 and Luck 6.

Sports

Cards Face Amery Tonight

Tonight the evening starts off with what is expected to be a tough ball game with Luck going up against Amery. By this time both teams will be ready for this game and will have gone over each others' strong points and weaknesses.

Amery has twelve returning lettermen of which ten started last year. Quarterback Jay Monson can throw the ball well and has good size. In the backfield Dean Brunsvold is quick and runs well in open field.

Amery has three good receivers in Rick Foy, Tom Waggoner, and Jim Wold. All three have good hands and run well.

The defense should be quite strong, and they like to hit. Inexperience in the offensive line is a weakness, but they should improve as the year goes on. In order to be successful against us, their coach says they'll have to stop our passing attack.

Coach Goulet's team is quick at the line and in the backfield. In the backfield Brian Tomlinson, Bevin Sandstrom, Joel Morgan, Dan Jensen and Brad Asper are all full of speed. And quarterbacks Brian and Joel can both throw the ball well and accurately. They all like to hit, are quick off the line, and have strong team unity.

The team is also a little inexperienced, but they should improve at a rapid rate. We are small, and most teams have an advantage over us here. But our quickness and hustle make up for it.

Amery has a good passing attack which we're going to have to stop to come out on top. The game should be a good one and both teams will be ready. I'd like to thank both coaches for their outlook on the game and good luck to both teams.

Time For A Change

The girls of Luck High school have had another change. This change is Miss Brom. Miss Brom will be coaching the girls in most of their sports. This includes volleyball, basketball and track.

Volleyball is Miss Brom's favorite sport. She feels that this is her strongest sport that she will be coaching.

Track, however, is another favorite. At the time of this interview, Miss Brom was looking anxiously to her first volleyball game, and she was very nervous.

Coaching is as new to Miss Brom, as Miss Brom is to us. So far, everything has been very satisfactory for Miss Brom, especially the new uniforms for the girls.

One of the first problems as coach was deciding who would play on the varsity squad and who would be on junior varsity for volleyball. This one thing she had to decide, though.

The girls have been working hard for volleyball. They run for twelve minute periods every day. Miss Brom runs with the team, and she sets the pace. She wants to stay in shape. The team also works on various skills, plays, etc.

Another change in the athletic program is the girls doing all of their running to music. The music keeps their minds from concentrating on how tired they are. The girls' basketball team will be running to music also.

There will be a lot of endurance work done for basketball. This means a lot of running girls. But don't let that scare you away.

When life gives you lemons make

LEMONADE

Our Team - Hard at practice.